FAQs

Your Guide to Civil Services Preparation

1. Why should I choose Civil Services as a career?

The Civil Services Examination (CSE) is not just an exam; it's a gateway to transforming society. Becoming an IAS, IPS, or IFS officer allows you to bring real change, shape policies, and serve the nation at the highest level. It offers prestige, job security, and an opportunity to work in diverse fields like administration, law enforcement, foreign relations, and social development. If you dream of a career that blends power, responsibility, and the ability to create an impact, Civil Services is your calling.

2. When should I start my preparation?

The earlier, the better! Many aspirants begin after completing their graduation, while others start during their school or college years. A strong foundation in General Studies, Current Affairs, and Analytical Thinking helps in long-term success. At ONE IAS Academy, we offer specialized Foundation Courses for school students (5th-12th grade), an Integrated Degree + Civil Services Program, and 1 year PCM courses for graduates, ensuring you have the right preparation at the right time.

3. Is it possible to crack the UPSC exam in one year?

Yes, but it requires dedication, discipline, and expert guidance. With our structured approach, 800+ hours of live & recorded classes, daily news analysis, weekly test series, and full-time mentorship, we ensure you stay on the right track. Many of our students have successfully cleared the exam within a year by following our strategic preparation methods.

4. What are the basic study materials I need?

Aspirants must build a strong base with standard books and resources such as:

- > NCERT books (6th-12th) – History, Geography, Polity, Economy, and Science
- > Reference books like Laxmikanth (Polity), Spectrum (History), Ramesh Singh (Economy)
- > Newspapers – The Hindu / Indian Express for current affairs
- > Monthly magazines and government reports (Yojana, Kurukshetra, PIB)
- > ONE IAS Academy's comprehensive study material, daily current affairs analysis, and exclusive answer-writing programs

FAQs

Your Guide to Civil Services Preparation

5. How much time should I devote to studying daily?

Consistency is key. On average, aspirants dedicate 6-8 hours daily for UPSC preparation. However, quality matters more than quantity. Our structured courses ensure focused study hours, daily revisions, mentorship support, and a well-balanced approach to maximize productivity. Working professionals and college students can opt for weekend and recorded classes for flexible learning.

6. How important is Current Affairs in the UPSC exam?

Current Affairs plays a crucial role in all three stages of the UPSC exam – Prelims, Mains, and Interview. From government policies and international relations to economic trends and social issues, a well-rounded understanding of current events is essential. ONE IAS Academy provides:

- > Daily news analysis with expert insights
- > Monthly Current Affairs magazines
- > Weekly Current Affairs quizzes & discussions
- > Integrated answer writing practice for linking news with static subjects

7. Why should I choose ONE IAS Academy?

At ONE IAS Academy, we don't just train aspirants; we create future leaders. We are Kerala's leading IAS coaching institute with 5+ years of excellence, known for personalized mentorship, top-notch faculty, and result-oriented strategies. Here's why we stand out:

- Hybrid Learning (Online & Offline): Attend live classes from anywhere or join our physical classrooms.
